Once upon a time in a far away land, a queen gave birth to a baby girl.
The baby had skin as white as snow, lips as red as blood and hair as black as ebony.
She was called Snow White. But soon after, the queen died.

Many years later, the king took another wife. She was beautiful but very vain. She had a magic mirror that knew everything in the world. The queen would ask it, "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the fairest of them all?" and the mirror would reply, "You are the fairest of them all." This made the queen very happy.

Snow White was growing up and becoming prettier and prettier. One day the queen looked into the mirror and asked, "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the fairest of them all?" The mirror answered "Your majesty, you are so very beautiful but Snow White is the fairest of them all." The queen was very angry.

So the queen sent Snow White into the forest with a huntsman and ordered him to kill her. But when Snow White began to cry, the huntsman took pity on her and let her run away into the wild woods.

Snow White came across a little house in the woods and went inside to rest.
Everything inside the house was very small. In one room there were seven small beds.
Snow White felt tired so she lay down on one of the beds and fell fast asleep.

That night, seven dwarves came back to their little house and found Snow White fast asleep. She looked so beautiful that the dwarves let her stay. When Snow White woke up and told them all about her wicked stepmother, they asked her to live with them. Snow White was very happy with the seven dwarves.

Now the queen thought Snow White was dead, she felt quite sure that she was the most beautiful woman in the land. She asked her mirror, "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the fairest of them all?" The mirror answered, "Oh queen you're so very beautiful but Snow White living in the woods, is still the fairest of them all." The queen was angry! She decided to take an apple to Snow White that she had cast a spell over. Snow White would die as soon as she ate it.

A few days later, a prince came riding by and when he saw Snow White he was amazed at her beauty and couldn't believe she was dead. He bent down to give her a kiss and in doing so broke the magic spell cast by the apple.
